WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that the record and accomplishments of the late Beverly Barnhart be filed on the official records of this Assembly, and the following facts relative to her career are hereby noted.*

Beverly Barnhart was born on October 29, 1929 in Denver, the only daughter of Adeline Gray and John Henry Homyak. She had three brothers, Howard, John and Gene. Beverly saw the humor and absurdity in everyday life, and she shared her wonderful wit with everyone she met.

She earned an education degree at Northern Colorado University and in 1952 married Robert W. Barnhart. The Barnharts lived in many places including Denver, Helena, Phoenix, Seattle, San Francisco and then Bozeman where Beverly lived in the same house for 43 years. In 1976 she earned a masters' degree from Montana State University.

Volunteering for the Gallatin County Democratic Party in the late '80s led to her successful campaign for the Montana House of Representatives in 1990. She served as a State Representative for ten years, advocating for families, aging services, women, equality and public schools. In 2005 she was instrumental in creating the Poet Laureate Program.

Beverly loved her family and loved to be with them, laughing, eating meals and telling stories. They fondly recall her wide repertoire of songs, including "Mairzy Doats" and "Itsy Bitsy Spider." She recently began jotting down "Delightful Moments" she was having. Number 2 was Snow on the branches; Number 5, Big laughs at the table, and Number 9, Having an old-fashioned donut. As the Clerk and Recorder, she also lobbied the legislature on issues important to the county. She served as the Assistant Secretary of the Senate in 1991 and then was elected to the Senate in 1992 where she continued her support for gender equality and reproductive freedom. After leaving the Senate she worked for the Montana ACLU, served on the Montana Tax Appeal Board, remained active in the women's movement and the Montana Democratic Party. Carol's List recently honored Sue by planting a tree on the Capitol grounds.

Sue was preceded in death by her parents, her grandparents, and her sister Peg. She is survived by her husband Eugene Fenderson; her brother Donn and his wife Dorothy, nieces and nephews; and Gene's children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. ESTHER G. BENGTON

WHEREAS, it is with deep and sincere sorrow that the members of the Sixty-Sixth Legislative Assembly of the State of Montana record the passing of Esther Bengtson on January 3, 2019 at the age of 92.*

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that the record and accomplishments of the late Esther Bengtson be filed on the official records of this Assembly, and the following facts relative to her career are hereby noted.*

Esther Bengtson was born on October 30, 1927 to Goodwin and Elizabeth (Jorgenson) Bergh in Froid. She and her four sisters lived on a dry land farm during the Great Depression, and their lives were shaped by hard times. Esther held a deep reverence for the land and people of northeastern Montana and her Scandinavian heritage. Esther believed that each and every day was not to be wasted, to be idle was not acceptable; she saw this as both a blessing and a curse.

Esther graduated as valedictorian of Froid High School and graduated from the now-Montana State University-Billings. While teaching at a one-room schoolhouse near Froid, she met her future husband, Lawrence Bengtson, when he stopped to fix a flat tire for her. She and Larry were married on September 29, 1948 and were soon raising three “stair-step” blond daughters on their dry land farm near Froid. The family moved to Shepherd in 1960 where Esther taught for many years at Shepherd High School. In 2014 they moved to a retirement community in Billings. They had been married 67 years. Larry passed away in 2015.

In 1973 Esther was elected to the legislature, and she served from 1974-1984 in the House and from 1984-1992 in the Senate. During her legislative career she successfully sponsored legislation establishing the interstate highway logo signs indicating locations of tourist services.

Esther was preceded in death by her husband, her sisters and their husbands, a son-in-law, two nieces and a great granddaughter. She is survived by her three daughters, Kristianne, Monica and Jennifer and their spouses; five grandchildren, Stacy, Megan, Joshua, Evan, and Collin, and their spouses; ten great-grandchildren, Julia, Carly, Brady, Sydney, Kinley, Emery, Sophie, Maisy, Blaire and Jeff; and her sister Doris.

VIVIAN MORGAN BROOKE

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that the record and accomplishments of the late Vivian Brooke be filed on the official records of this Assembly, and the following facts relative to her career are hereby noted.*

Born in New York City and raised in Florida, Vivian moved to Montana to study at Carroll College after working near Glacier National Park during high school. She received her bachelor's degree in sociology from Carroll, and in 1965 met Joe Brooke on the highway between Drummond and Garrison on a blind date. They were married October 15, 1966. They had four children, and Vivian led the family on many excursions from ski trips to showing her family the beauty of Glacier National Park.

Vivian was elected to the Montana House of Representatives in 1988, and she spent three sessions in the House and two sessions in the Senate. She took on tough issues, particularly issues related to women and gay rights. One of the accomplishments that Vivian was most proud of during her time in the legislature was to get a women's prison built in Billings.

Retirement from the legislature gave Vivian more time to enjoy her favorite places and to contribute to various projects in the community. She loved to go on long hikes, travel with friends and family, and enjoy her grandchildren. She applied her competitive spirit to life with a determination to win on the golf course, playing cards, and growing award-winning roses.

Vivian leaves behind her husband Joe, children Patricia, Monica and husband Kevin Scott, Susan and husband Aaron Thompson, Morgan and wife Joy; grandchildren Brooke, Biko, Tony, Maguire and Penelope; great granddaughter Mylah; and her sister Miriam.

Aubyn Curtiss was born in Park City, Montana, on July 1, 1925. The family moved to Fortine when their daughters were small. Aubyn graduated from Lincoln County High School and studied journalism at UCLA. While in Los Angeles she worked as a welder in the shipyards helping build “Liberty Ships” as part of the World War II effort. After the war she returned to Fortine and married David Curtiss, and the two built their home on Deep Creek near Fortine.

Aubyn loved Montana. After recovering from a series of illnesses in the early 1960s, Aubyn played a role in interviewing people who were being displaced by the building of the Libby Dam and Koocanusa Reservoir. Seeing the plight of people in the face of a taking by big government spurred her interest in politics. A lifelong Republican, Aubyn began her career in politics at the local level and moved into state politics by winning a seat in the state legislature in 1974. She served in both the House of Representatives and the State Senate. She was chairman of the state Republican party and, as a proud supporter of Ronald Reagan, met with him on numerous occasions. She served on the Presidential Scholars Commission under both President Reagan and President George H.W. Bush.

A very humble person with deep Christian beliefs, her style of government was to listen to people and represent their wishes. Her desire every day was to be a blessing to someone. She was the rock of her family and made a positive difference in the lives of many, many people.

She was preceded in death by her sister Rosalie, her husband David, and her son David. She is survived by her daughter Sue, her son Gareth, her grandchildren Patrick Nelson, David Curtiss III, Aubyn Bluette Curtiss, Heath Curtiss and Amber Curtiss and her great-granddaughters Rachel, Annalise and Harper.

ROYAL CALVIN JOHNSON

WHEREAS, it is with deep and sincere sorrow that the members of the Sixty-Sixth Legislative Assembly of the State of Montana record the passing of Royal Johnson on November 19, 2018 at the age of 93.*

Royal Johnson was born on May 2, 1925 in Hettinger, North Dakota to railroader Holsey and Olive Forsythe Johnson. He lived in a variety of railroad towns, but spent most of his young life in Butte. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. Royal returned to Montana and enrolled at the University of Montana where he ran track and was given the first-ever varsity letter in skiing. He earned a degree in business administration, met the love of his life, Norma Besinque of Billings and married her in 1950.

While he briefly owned a used car lot, it broke his heart to have to repossess a vehicle, so he settled in as an investment advisor/manager. He was a Freemason and member of the Al Bedoo Shrine, riding in the Black Horse Patrol.

He believed the people of their community were responsible for looking after each other, not the government. His political career began on the city council in Billings. After a failed mayoral bid, he ran unopposed as a Republican and was elected to the House of Representatives in 1991. His tenure in the Legislature spanned both the House and Senate, and his last session was in 2003. John Mercer, one of the Speakers of the House during Royal's tenure, said of Royal: "He was just the ideal citizen legislator. You couldn't get better."

Royal was preceded in death by his brothers, Holsey Johnson Jr. and John Johnson; and his wife, Norma. He leaves his four children, Blake (wife Diane) of Manhattan, New York, Jan Kelly (husband Patrick) of Austin Texas, Clark (wife Cindy) of Manhattan, Montana and Scott of Billings; seven grandchildren, Woody, Louise, Chase, Brooks, Caylin, Paige and Connor; and two great grandchildren, Royal and Crew.

Butch Waddill was born on November 20, 1946 in Battle Creek Michigan, and came to Montana in 1997. He graduated from Castro Valley High School in California and attended college in California and Colorado. He retired from the U.S. Marine Corps.

A fellow Marine remembers the day in November of 1967 that Butch Waddill saved five lives. “I was crying while I was flying,” said the pilot of the helicopter that lowered Marine Sgt. Waddill by cable into the deep canopy of a Vietnam jungle, with so much flak flying there seemed little hope he would come back up alive. Butch sent three wounded fellow Marines, a Navy corpsman and a South Vietnamese scout back up, which left no room for Butch. The pilot added, “The thing is, they couldn’t get themselves into the hoist. They were too injured. He tied them onto the hoist with his belt and their belts and whatever. If he hadn’t gone down there, every one of those guys would have died.”

Left alone in the jungle, Butch gathered up the rifles and radios and hoped that the helicopter would return for him before nightfall. It did. Butch, dragged through heavy underbrush for hundreds of yards, finally climbed into the chopper bloodied and injured. Over 47 years later Sen. Jon Tester pinned a Silver Star Medal on Butch Waddill.

Butch served during the 2001 session in the Montana House of Representatives.

Butch is survived by his wife Cathy and their four children: Jaclyn, Matt, Jean-Jacques and Cameron.
